Glen Canyon National Recreation Area to Waive Entrance Fees to Honor Newly Naturalized Citizens

Page, Ariz. – On Sunday, September 28, 2008, Glen Canyon National Recreation Area will honor the nation's newly naturalized citizens by waiving entrance fees for all visitors.

On July 4th, Secretary of the Interior Dirk Kempthorne issued a statement welcoming newly naturalized citizens and inviting them to experience their national parks. In response to Mr. Kempthorne's invitation, the National Park Service has identified Sunday, September 28th, as a fee free day in honor of those who have chosen to become United States citizens.

As previously announced, this year's annual fee free day falls on National Public Lands Day - Saturday, September 27th. This means that entrance fees will be waived on Saturday and Sunday, September 27th and 28th. All free entry passes issued on the 27th or the 28th will be valid only through Sunday, September 28th.
